

Stephen Miller - 2024

Title:

STEPHEN W. MILLER, CHCIO
Chief Technology Officer &
State Coordinator for Health Information Exchange
Oklahoma Health Care Authority

BIO:

Career senior healthcare executive with extensive experience in executive/client relationships, information management, health information applications / infrastructure, and IT governance & operations. Mr. Miller has held the positions of Chief Information Officer at Baptist Health, Alabama, and served as CIO at Oklahoma Heart Hospital locally. He has additionally held senior IT positions at Chesapeake Energy, Kerr-McGee, and Cerner Corporations. Mr. Miller has led the governance, evaluation and implementation of healthcare technologies and their operations and implementation through-out his career. Additionally, Mr. Miller has been involved in the start-up, operations, and governance of multiple HIE's both here in Oklahoma as well as in Alabama. Steve holds degrees from Oklahoma State and Southern Nazarene Universities, as well as carries the designation of Certified Healthcare Chief Information Officer (CHCIO) from the College of Healthcare Information Management Executives (CHIME).